Mr. Ted Mahood moved to approve the operating budget for 2011-2012, seconded by Ms. Jan Hogan, Pacific Group President.
XVIII	Motion to Accept the Report of the Membership Chairperson. Mr. Paddison, 883 Wing moved to accept the report. Mr. André Labelle, 394 Wing, seconded the motion. The 444 Wing president, Mrs. Cecile Thompson, criticized the national headquarters for publishing incorrect membership statistics which she seemed to claim caused her to pay more Group fees than she should have to. The Chairman acknowledged the complaint, and explained that the end-June membership report is merely a snapshot of the membership in the association on that particular day. Secretarial Note: the collection of Group fees is a confusing process authorization for which is not formalized in our constitution. Hence, the process lies outside the association's accountability framework at this time. In fact, Group dues are not subject to an annual audit, at the association level simply because they are not authorized. Booklet 113 refers to the process but this is merely an acknowledgement there is a need for such funds at the Group level. The Booklet does not serve as an approval. Solving this problem requires it be placed within the accountability framework desired, and subjected to audit procedures. This would suggest the national headquarters might better control the collection of Group dues by invoicing individual members and distributing the dues on behalf of the Groups themselves. This, however, does not change the basic fact that payment of Group dues is not something that can be mandated by the association; only when members agree to voluntarily pay Group dues along with his or her membership dues can the process be formalized, and this would require Group dues be treated as a budget line item with all other revenues and expenditures, for audit purposes. The authority to collect Group dues does not come from a membership tally produced by the Executive Director; to the contrary, and far more importantly, the authority to collect dues can only come from the members themselves when they voluntarily choose to

	pay those dues. It is strongly recommended that if Group dues remain essential, then members be individually invoiced, and the invoice must clearly state the member voluntarily pays these (membership, Wing and Group) dues understanding fully what they get for their dues, and if they see value in such payments to continue making such payments.

XXIII	Greetings from ANAVETS. A representative was unable to attend. However, the Chairman informed the delegates that the National President of ANAVETS had sent his regrets and best wishes for a successful and productive meeting.

The association has until 17 October 2014 to acquire a “Letter of Continuance” or be dissolved as an association with effect from that date.
XXVII	Resolutions Committee Report. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mr. André Labelle, 394 Wing, moved to accept Quebec Group resolution 2011/01. Mr. Richard Valiquette, 338 Wing, seconded the motion. The resolution carried. Mr. Richard Valiquette, 338 Wing, moved to accept Quebec Group resolution 2011/02. Mr. Labelle, 394 Wing seconded the motion. The resolution carried. • Mr. Terry Chester offered a slide presentation on the resolutions process. The aim was to improve the resolutions process for the benefit of all members. An Ontario Group delegate interrupted the presentation to claim the NEC had no right, nor any power, to reject resolutions. Mr. Chester indicated his disagreement and there was no further discussion. Secretarial Note: The complaint was timely and important, for it revealed yet another problem that has beset the process of resolutions for at least the past five or six years, and that concerns the fact at no time in the past five years has any effort been made to refer a resolution to the Resources & Projects Committee. Almost every resolution requires staff work and/or expenditure of financial resources, but the NRC has not ever forwarded resolutions to the committee for such an assessment, in the recent past. Furthermore, on the matter of who can or cannot reject resolutions, Booklet 103 (Meetings) states at article 9.2 on page 18 of 21: RESOLUTIONS AT ASSOCIATION MEETINGS 5) Proposed resolutions may be rejected or returned for amendment by the National Resolutions Committee, if they are: a. unclear and ambiguous;

	b. vague and frivolous; c. inaccurate; d. of a local rather than of a National character; e. impossible of performance; or f. calculated to be an embarrassment to the Association or Canadian Forces; and g. repetitive of the substance of any resolution approved or rejected during the immediately preceding Annual General Meeting... 7) The Resolutions Committee will report to the sponsor as to whether a proposed resolution has been recommended for consideration by the Annual General Meeting, rejected or referred back for amendment, giving reasons in each case. 8) Within its terms of reference the Resolutions Committee shall not decide on the merits of any proposed resolution; that decision is for the (AGM) meeting itself. 9) Any resolution put forward which involves the expenditure of money is to be presented to the Resources and Projects Committee for budgetary consideration prior to being considered by the Resolutions Committee. This is to ensure that sufficient funds are provided for in the proposed budget to meet the expenditure should the resolution be approved. Lacking this action the preparer of the resolution is to advise how the funds required are to be realized. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 10) The decisions of the Resolutions Committee may be appealed to the National Executive Council for review and final decision at the Council meeting on the day prior to the National Convention. Any such appeals will be referred to the Chairman of the Resolutions Committee for

Serial	Item and Discussion	Decisions & Actions
	presentation to the NEC. Further discussions with the Ontario Group delegate revealed some of the underlying reasons for her complaint. In retrospect no single resolution has ever been rejected by the NRC nor the NEC for the past five years. The NEC, therefore, did not deserve the blame. All resolutions have either been approved or were withdrawn by the author. However, at least three resolutions have been rejected by Ontario Group since May 2008. Perhaps this explains why this complaint against the NEC came from someone in Ontario Group. The NEC is therefore investigating why a Group President would operate outside the scope of a Group’s responsibilities, mindful of the fact the lowest level at which the authority for rejecting resolutions is not the Group level but at the NRC level, where at least two Group presidents and a vice-president reside. Simply put, when a Group president rejects a resolution at a Group meeting, this is a breach of the governance tenet that stipulates NEC decisions must reflect the democratic principal of “the majority rules”. The rejection of a resolution by a single member of the NEC is meaningless and prohibited. It can also be harmful from a retention and recruiting point-of-view. No single member of the NEC has any executive authority by themselves. The executive authority (to reject resolutions and decide on other matters including the articulation of policy) is vested not in any single member but in the entire NEC, such is the nature of the association’s governance and accountability framework. These unilateral rejections or executive decisions being made by Group presidents are null and void since they are outside the accountability framework of the association.

Prairie Group President's Report

- Prairie Group consists of the three Wings located in Manitoba and Saskatchewan: 500 Wing, Winnipeg; 600 Wing, Regina; and 602 Wing, Saskatoon. Combined, the three Wings have approximately 180 Regular Members, plus 50 Associate Members. The bulk of the Associate Membership is at 602 Wing in Saskatoon.
- All of the Wings have participated in the usual events of November 11, Decoration Day and have laid wreaths on behalf of the Wing and the AFAC. This is also excellent exposure for our cause.
- Winnipeg #500 Wing is also involved with the Wartime Pilots Association; Battle of Britain, and Decoration Day Parades. Wreaths were presented at these ceremonies.
- I am also pleased that #500 Wing had Colonel Bigaouette as guest speaker at their Wing meeting. The Colonel had returned recently from Afghanistan (and is currently serving as the Commander 15 Wing (Moose Jaw). In my recent consultations with #500 Wing President, Ed deCaux, I understand that they will be having a new liaison officer from the base for their Wing in the near future.
- Regina #600 Wing is involved with many fund raising events, which also are community 'flag raisers', promoting the AFAC and the organizations they help support. They have hosted the 'Snowbirds' with a 'Dining In' event, and also support Vintage Wings. They support the Veterans Association, and are having a 'Dining In' celebration re: The Battle of Britain. They have hosted several guest speakers who have served in Afghanistan.

- Saskatoon #602 Wing has, for many years, been the lone organization representing the Air Element in this area. Each year they conduct the 'Al Prystupa Invitational Golf Tournament', which the late Al started many years ago. This event is open to non-members, and is held at different venues each year. The golf tournament sponsored by the Provincial Committee of the ACLC is also attended by many of our Association members each year.
- The 'Silver Strings' music group are granted use of a hall once per week for their practice session, and the Pilots & Observers Organization use the same premise on a different day for their meetings. On behalf of the AFAC, a booth was set up for the Air Show, and I was happy to talk to many people, and hand out our AFAC booklets to many interested individuals.
- There is a private boxing club in Saskatoon to which #602 Wing presented a mat for the entire ring, in AFAC colours, c/w the large emblem of the Association in the centre
- In conclusion, I stress the fact that all three Prairie Group Wings support, and in some cases sponsor, Air Cadet Squadrons. I would draw everyone's attention to the fact that, when the Wings are involved in the Cadet units, many parents realize in part what the AFAC is doing for our young people, and some of the parents are likely to join the Wings. As well, many Cadets become Wing members when they age out.
- I have been in contact with the two Vice Presidents and the Wing Presidents throughout the months; I feel that personal (telephone) contact has a greater effect on comradeship and understanding of any problems, rather than e-mails.
- I thank the AFAC for my 48 years of membership, and the people I have had the honour of associating with during that time frame.

PER ARDUA AD ASTRA

Respectfully

Duncan L. Campbell, CD
Prairie Group President
