FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

JUNE 30, 2022

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of the Royal Canadian Air Force Association/Association de l'Aviation Royale Canadienne:

Opinion

I have audited the financial statements of the Royal Canadian Air Force Association/Association de l'Aviation Royale Canadienne ("the Association"), which comprise the balance sheet as at June 30, 2022, and the statements of operations, change in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In my opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Association as at June 30, 2022, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian Accounting Standards for Not-for-profit Organizations (ASNPO).

Basis for Opinion

I conducted my audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. My responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of my report. I am independent of the Association in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to my audit of the financial statements in Canada, and I have fulfilled my other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with ASNPO and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Association's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Association or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Association's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

My objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes my opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, I exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. I also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Association's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Association's ability to continue as a going concern. If I conclude that a material uncertainty exists, I am required to draw attention in my auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify my opinion. My conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of my auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Association to cease to continue as a going concern.

I communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that I identify during my audit.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Description

The Royal Canadian Air Force Association/Association de l'Aviation royale canadienne (the "Association") purpose is to provide a forum for serving current and former participants in military aviation and their contemporaries in civil aviation. The Association was orginally incorporated under the Canada Corporation Act and during the 2015 fiscal year it received a certificate of continuance under the Canada Not-for-profit Corportions Act. The Association is exempt from income taxes under the Income Tax Act.

The certificate of continuance issued October 17, 2014 changed the name of the organization from Air Force Association of Canada to Royal Canadian Air Force Association/Association de l'Aviation royale canadienne

2. Significant accounting policies

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations and include the following significant accounting policies:

(a) Revenue recognition:

Membership dues and sponsorship revenue is recognized in the period to which they relate. Amounts received in advance are recorded as deferred revenue.

Advertising, magazine sales, merchandise sales, national convention, donations and other revenue are recorded in the period in which the service is provided.

Investment revenue is comprised of interest from fixed income investments.

(b) Capital assets:

Capital assets are recorded at cost and amortization is calculated on a reducing balance basis at the following annual rates:

Furniture and equipment 20% Computer equipment 30%

The half-year rule is used in the year of acquisition.

JUNE 30, 2022

(c) Royal Canadian Air Force Association Trust:

These financial statements do not include the accounts of the Royal Canadian Air Force Association Trust (the "Trust") since this fund cannot be utilized by the Association for its operations. The Trust is affiliated with the Royal Canadian Air Force Association/Association de l'Aviation royale canadienne, created in accordance with the Trust Agreement, and is responsible for raising and distributing funds at the national level for the Association's charitable programs. The entities share office space and administrative services. The Trust is a registered charitable organization. As at June 30, 2022, the Trust held assets of $169,414, liabilities of $100,080 and equity of $69,334. Revenue for the year ending June 30, 2022 was $841,679 and total expenses were $842,048. These figures have not been subject to audit.

(d) Groups and Wings:

These financial statements do not include the accounts of the Groups and Wings of the Association.

(e) Inventory:

Inventory is stated at lower of cost and next realizeable value. Cost is determined on the first-in, first-out basis.

(f) Investments:

Investments consist of two guaranteed investment certificates recorded at cost.

(g) Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts recorded in the financial statements. These estimates are based on management's best knowledge of current events and actions that the organization may undertake in the furture. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(h) Donated materials and services:

Donated materials and services are not recognized in the accounts, unless they would otherwise be purchased.

4. Long - term debt

Due to the Covid 19 virus, the Association applied for and received $40,000 of emergency funding from its bank. There are no payments required in the current year. $30,000 will be repaid without interest by December 31, 2023. The balance of $10,000 had been recognized as revenue on the prior year's financial statements.

5. Financial instruments

Cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and deferred revenue are financial instruments with a market value presumed to be equal to their book value because of their short-term nature. It is management's opinion that the entity is not exposed to significant interest rate, currency, liquidity or credit risks arising from these financial instruments.

6. Related parties transactions

The entity has concluded transactions with its employees and its National Executive Council. These transactions have occurred in the current course of business.

7. Lease obligation

The entity has entered into a lease agreement for office space over a two year term expiring on January 31, 2023. The basic rent on an annual basis is as follows:
